Eye strain not only injures those valuable organs, but disfigures the face and expression; it saps the general nervous system and is responsible for most headaches. If your occupation is such that imposes much work on the eyes, you will find properly fitted and specially ground glasses, as finished by Drs. Lowe & Turner, a great convenience, if not an absolute necessity. Their charges are always consistent with their service. They never sacrifice quality for price. If you consult them about your eyes, you will be fitted right or not at all. Satisfaction guaranteed. Remember the date.
